

RECEPTION FOR DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AND EMERITUS PROFESSORS

Professor James MacIntyre, QC, Professor Peter Burns and the Hon. William Esson

An alumni event for Alumni from the Classes of 1948 to 1963 and UBC Law Emeritus Professors was held on November 1, 2007. It was an opportunity for Dean Mary Anne Bobinski to meet with a lively group of UBC Law alumni and reminisce about the early days of the law school, as well as talk about current developments in the Faculty.

During the event, Dean Bobinski gave a speech thanking volunteers and supporters of the Faculty, commenting on what a successful history the law school has had. The Dean also touched on recent events at UBC Law.

Approximately 30 alumni were joined by Professors Emeriti Charles Bourne, Peter Burns, Don MacDougall, Jim MacIntyre and Bertie McClean, as well as Mrs. Patricia Lysyk, the wife of the late Kenneth Lysyk, former Dean of UBC Law.

The Faculty appreciated the opportunity to interact with such distinguished alumni and particularly wanted to highlight that Judge Cecil Lewis (Class of 1948) and the Honourable Valerie Taggart (Class of 1949) were present, representing the first two classes to graduate from UBC Law. We commend them all for making the effort to come out to the campus to socialize with former classmates and colleagues. To round out the morning a small group enjoyed a jazz concert at the School of Music.
