

ALUMNI RUGBY GAME

The Law Students' Society, Alumni Relations and the UBC Law Beavers Rugby Club co-hosted the annual Alumni Rugby Game on a sunny late-September Sunday on Wolfson Field at UBC. Spectators on hand were treated to lots of action as the alumni jumped to a early lead with tries from perennial powerhouses Adam Munnings and Prentice Durbin (both 2005 graduates). An impressive alumni forward pack that featured Scott McCann ('02) and new alum Grady Tyler ('07) were able to push around the smaller forwards of the law student squad in the early going. Their dominance was not to last, however, as the law student side used their speed to squeak ahead in the final minutes.

The final score was 35 - 27 in what was one of the most closely contested and high-scoring alumni games in recent memory. First-year standout Michael Sami scored three tries for the students and made all of his conversions but one, when the cagey alumni taunted him, challenging him to attempt a drop kick while hiding the kicking tee. After the game, spectators and players gathered at a nearby pub to share law school stories and receive career advice from the alumni squad. Man-of-the-Match honours were given to Munnings for the alumni squad and third-year law student Luke Dineley.

