

Roger Carter Scholarship Awards

This Scholarship was established by the Native Law Students Association of Canada in 1981. It provides four awards of $250 each, to be paid each year to students of Native Canadian ancestry entering second or third year of law school in Canada. This Scholarship is awarded in honour of Roger Carter, Q.C., founder of the Program of Legal Studies for Native People in 1973 and the Native Law Centre in 1975. He was Director of the Centre until 1981.

The students receiving the awards are to be selected by a committee of Trustees of the Scholarship Trust Fund, made up of four Aboriginal law graduates and a representative of the University of Saskatchewan Native Law Centre.

The criteria that the committee is to apply in arriving at its decision is as follows:

- (a) The student's academic record in his or her law studies.
- (b) The student's past and expected contribution to furthering the needs, concerns and aspirations of native people and their communities in Canada.
- (c) The student must be entering second or third year law.

Students interested in applying for the Scholarship should apply in writing to:

The Scholarship Committee
Native Law Centre, University of Saskatchewan
101 Diefenbaker Place,
Saskatoon, Sask.
S7N 5B8

Students should enclose transcripts of their marks in law school and a resume of their career and education.