

Faculty of Law, University of British Columbia, Canada

Bankruptcy and Insolvency Law Scholarship Unit (BILS)
Adelaide Law School, Australia

The Annual Review of Insolvency Law and the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Law Scholarship Unit are pleased to co-host:

A Roundtable Discussion on the Stigma Associated with Bankruptcy

Tuesday January 17, 2012

8:00 am to 10:00 am

UBC Faculty of Law at Allard Hall

Room 335

1822 East Mall, Vancouver

Chair: Dr. Janis Sarra, UBC Faculty of Law

Speakers:

Dr. Thomas Telfer, University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law, The Origins of Bankruptcy's Stigma and Its Ever Present Influence

Dr. Christopher Symes, Co-Director, Bankruptcy and Insolvency Law Scholarship Unit (BILS) Adelaide Law School, University of Adelaide, Personal Bankruptcy: 236 years of Social Stigma and Harsh Restrictions in a Convict Nation!

Professor Stephanie Ben-Ishai, Osgoode Hall Law School and Professor Dan Priel, Osgoode Law School, Bankruptcy and Stigma in Canada through the Lens of the Media

Professor David Brown, Associate Professor, Director, Postgraduate Coursework Programmes Co-Director, Bankruptcy and Insolvency Law Scholarship Unit (BILS) Adelaide Law School, University of Adelaide, Can stigma attach to a body that can't be kicked, a soul that can't be damned?

Commentator:

Professor Jacob Ziegel, University of Toronto Faculty of Law

There is no cost to attend, but registration is necessary. Please register with Anna Lund at annajanelund@gmail.com.
For more information, contact Joanne Forbes at jforbes@shaw.ca.